

The Society was founded in 1975, covering the modern Archdeaconry of York and is run entirely by volunteers. Our aim is to bring together people who share the same interest in family history research, and provide a point of contact for all, whether they have roots in the area or elsewhere, whether they live locally or not, but who want to enjoy the facilities the Society offers.

Monthly meetings are held at
The Quaker Meeting House, White Rose Ave, New Earswick, YORK YO32 4AD
on the 1st Wednesday in the month at 7.00 p.m. for 7.30 p.m. until 9.30 p.m.

The Society has its own Research Room at
The Raylor Centre, James Street, YORK YO10 3DW
Tel. 01904 412204
open Tuesdays and Thursdays 10am to 4pm
email: yorkfamilyhistory@bopenworld.com

The Society produces a journal three times a year, which includes lists of members' interests, requests for help and articles of interest to family researchers.

Please consider setting up a standing order through your bank as our bank is restricting the number of cheques that can be paid in each month. This would ensure that a payment would be made to the Society's account about 1st January each year, until you cancel.
